

Bella Sez...

Are the dog days of August sapping your energy? The same thing may be happening to your vehicle if the battery is getting along in years. Hot days push under hood temperatures even higher, increasing resistance at corroded terminals, contributing to warpage and increasing the voltage requirements of the starter. Call my shop for an appointment to service your battery and confirm that the charging systems is keeping it fully charged.

Call 503-234-2119

Hawthorne Auto Clinic, Inc.
4307 SE Hawthorne Blvd.
Portland OR 97215

www.hawthorneauto.com